

Wimbledon at Tower Bridge

■ ADVERTISEMENT FEATURE

■ Lady Isabella Hervey will be playing alongside Monica Seles

On Wednesday 30 June catch the added excitement of a celebrity Charity Tennis event with the likes of Lady Isabella Hervey playing alongside previous Wimbledon pros Pat Cash and Monica Seles to raise money for Sport Relief - a sporting charity set up to tackle poverty and disadvantage in both the UK and around the world.

Don't miss out on this fun-packed opportunity to watch the celebrities and pros exercising their talents in a series of tennis challenges in front of an enthusiastic crowd. This is a ticketed event. To claim your free tickets come to the American Express/Charity Tennis match ticket booth located on the riverside between Tower Bridge and City Hall. Only four tickets per person. Tickets are limited and are on a first-come first-served basis. Tickets will be available from Saturday 26 June through until Wednesday 30 June between 11am-7pm. No purchase is necessary. Doors open at 6pm.

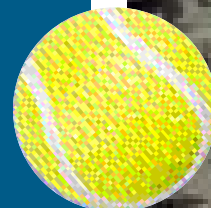

Sport Relief is an initiative of Comic Relief, registered charity © 326568

Special Treatment

American Express, as part of their commitment to providing access to premium events, will have a Cardmember Services booth where you can win tickets to the Mens Final at Wimbledon as well offering the best possible service including restaurant reservations, local directions, travel assistance and tournament information.

Le Pont De La Tour Offer

There will be an exclusive offer to American Express Cardmembers with Conran restaurants to enjoy a limited edition 'Wimbledon' wicker hamper on sale at Le Pont De La Tour food store at Butler's Wharf. You can indulge in a bottle of red or chilled white wine, that will accompany a selection of cured meat with pickles/chutney, a fresh baguette from the bakery, a selection of mixed olives and, of course, the statutory two punnets of strawberries and Devonshire clotted cream for as little as £25 (for two people) on your American Express card. To order a delicious Wimbledon gastro experience call Conran on 020-7234 3666 anytime up to 5pm on the day before you head down to Potters Field and your hamper will be available to pick up from noon-8pm daily (lines will be open between 9am-5pm).

An ace photo service from American Express

