

Win a top-to-toe detox day

We all want a healthy smile so while you're de-stressing and detoxing your mind and body, don't forget your daily dental care. Macleans has launched two new ranges for a beautiful smile.

Transform your mouth with a deep down daily cleanse using Macleans Detox toothpaste. It's got an antibacterial formulation that not only cleans your teeth but also helps eliminate the bacteria that build up overnight.

Don't forget to use Macleans Detox Mouthwash afterwards and you'll enhance the cleansing action of the brushing.

Macleans Remineralise toothpaste has been scientifically proven to help keep your teeth strong. Over time, acids formed in sugars in food and drink can harm your tooth enamel by causing mineral loss invisible to the naked eye.

Daily brushing with Macleans Remineralise toothpaste intensifies the replenishment of those lost minerals, helping to restore your tooth enamel, the essential barrier that protects your teeth.

Enter this fantastic prize draw

Now's your chance to detoxify yourself from top to toe. The Spa at Chancery Court Hotel is offering 10 lucky readers a day of luxury pampering including a Sea of Senses treatment, a purifying and balancing holistic treatment that deeply detoxes the whole system and leaves skin thoroughly nourished and hydrated. Not only that, you will also be treated to a three course lunch and a traditional afternoon tea.
